BLUE AND THE MISUNDERSTOOD MONSTERS

Blue and his friends don't want to be scary – they just want to be loved! They have all gathered here for Halloween season to tell you their stories.

BLUE

Blue is a sweet little ghost who just wants to make friends! He saw the kids playing in his house and wanted to introduce himself, so he shouted his name loud for them to hear: "BLUE!" Only... they thought he said "BOO" and ran away. Blue just wants to make friends! Will you be his friend?

AYLIA

Aylia was traveling from a far away planet with her family, but the ship broke and she landed all by herself on planet Earth when she was very little. She is happy that this is her home now, and wishes that people wouldn't be so scared of her! Even though she looks different, she feels just as human as the rest of us.

BOOGEY

Boogey knows he looks scary – but he didn't choose his silly face and bony arms! When people see Boogey, they scream and point and run away. That makes him sad, especially when the music is going! You see, all Boogey wants is to D-A-N-C-E! So next time you pull up some disco music, will you invite Boogey to dance with you?

CAMA

Cama always hears about kids being scared of what's under the bed, but that's where she lives – and she's a little scared too! Sometimes, the noises from above the bed can be scary. The thing is, Cama doesn't have anyone to read her stories or tuck her into bed. She likes listening to all the bedtime stories, so please keep reading them loudly so she can hear! And maybe say goodnight to her too.

BIGGIE

Don't mind Biggie trying to hide – he's just a bit shy! And for some reason, people love trying to look for him and take pictures of him! You can wave of course, but Biggie's biggest wish is that he could just have a little "me" time without being followed around by humans.
